

ZTERS is a family business with nationwide connections. When you work with ZTERS, you're working with a commercial waste and construction site solutions team with a decade of industry experience. Before our founding in 2009, members of our team worked across a wide spectrum of waste management services, from portable toilet rentals to permanent commercial waste solutions, so we know the industry inside and out. With a dedicated account manager who will create a custom solution for your project, whether you have one event or construction site or multiple locations across the country.
