SENERGY MEDICAL GROUP

Capability Statement

www.senergy.us

Senergy Medical Group is the exclusive worldwide distributor of the Tennant Biomodulator® devices and accessories designed and used by Jerry Tennant MD and others worldwide for pain control.

The Tennant Biomodulators® are revolutionary, portable, neurostimulation devices designed to treat patients from all walks of life suffering from all types of conditions. The Tennant Biomodulator® devices, developed by Dr. Jerry Tennant, contain unique frequencies to produce microcurrent, electrical impulses that are transmitted by electrodes in the device through the skin to interface with the body's internal peripheral nervous system for the purpose of therapeutic intervention.

Dr. Tennant's priority frequencies are designed help patients improve circulation, increase nerve stimulation and promote faster injury recovery, as well as reduce pain naturally by increasing body voltage with gentle, non-invasive, integrative treatments. These treatments help a wide range of user groups and related conditions which include: sports injuries, combat recovery, medical procedures and syndromes, senior and family ailments and pain-free dental procedures. In addition, the Tennant Biomodulator® can safely reduce pain and inflammation in small and large animals.
